OLD BUSINESS

Cluster Governance:

At our March 7th meeting, the general board voted and approved for each PLC school to return to their staff and parent communities for dialoge and input on a new framework. Resource were requested and provided to the community via the cluster website for these meetings. These resources included (but was not limited to) the Courageous Conversation, a blank framework handout and a powerpoint.

The general board voted and approved for PLC schools to return on Monday, May 2 to report this feedback. The general board voted and approved to call a special meeting for Monday, May 16th to vote on a new Empowerment Framework for PLC.

REPORTS

Each School Representative(s) will report on feedback from their staff and parent meetings around the "6 areas" for the development of a new framework. (schools will volunteer order for reporting)
