

Correia Holiday Bazaar November 6, 3:00—7:00 Correia Middle School

It's a good old fashioned Bazaar! Come shop for holiday crafts, collectables, jewelry - and some great food! Proceeds benefit students raising money for their trip to Washington D.C., band students raising money for their trip to Los Angeles, and teachers raising money for classroom supplies.

There will also be a book sale sponsored by the Correia Library. The library is currently accepting gently used books of all levels - children, young adult, and adult. To donate books, contact Marcia Abbott at mabbott@sandi.net.

For information about the event, contact Eleanor Snyder at mrssnyd@cox.net.
